FLOWERS produced from bulbs are among the most beautiful of the floral kingdom. Nothing can exceed the brilliancy and variety of colors displayed, and nothing can be more simple than their culture. The bulb contains within itself the future flower, and it requires very little aid to develop it. Its long period of rest leaves the ground free for other plants for half the year at least. Many of them produce their flowers very early in Spring, at a season when few other plants are in bloom, and when flowers are doubly valuable from their rarity. Some of them are natives of our own land, while others are brought to perfection only in warmer climes, but there is hardly any bulb that will not blossom, either out of doors or in the parlor or green-house, and many are peculiarly suited for window gardening. They are usually less affected by the furnace heat and gas, in houses, than are plants, and they will bear more bad treatment. By a selection of bulbs flowering at different periods of the season, the house and yard can be made exceedingly attractive from mid-Winter till Autumn, and at much less expense and with less care than with any other class of plants. After flowering, the majority of bulbs can be laid away and used again the following season; and they are continually adding to their number by producing their off-shoots, which in the course of two or three years are usually large enough to flower. Thus, by a small original outlay, and a little care in preserving the old and the young bulbs, in a short time one can have an abundance of these choice gems of nature. A judicious selection forms a garden of unrivaled richness, varying every month by a succession of new flowers, every fresh one appearing more splendid than the last. In some of the older countries, the culture of bulbs is carried on to vast proportions; in our own country, it is comparatively in its infancy, but is growing rapidly, and the absence of flowers in families who are able to have them, is now very often attributed to a lack of education or refinement. A few crocks of Tulips, Hyacinths, &c., in full bloom in one's parlor in mid Winter, render it more cheerful and attractive than if fifty times the cost of the bulbs were expended in artificial ornamentation.

As heretofore, we have purchased only the very best Bulbs of all sorts, imported them ourselves direct from the growers, thus avoiding any risk of being imposed upon by dealers in second or third rate roots. (frequently the refuse stocks which are sold at auction at very low rates, but which always prove to be dearer in the end), and after securing the best grown in the world, have offered them at a moderate advance, so that the poor may successfully compete with the rich in beautifying their dwellings, and bringing gladness and sunshine into the home circle.

We recommend our patrons to always buy named Bulbs of all varieties, as far as possible. It is true they cost a little more, but they should bear in mind that these are the best, being selected for their beauty of flower, and strength and size of bulb, always producing just what they represent, and should invariably be selected for pot and glass culture.

Forward your orders as early in the season as practicable, before our stock becomes broken. We are ready to receive orders now or at any future time, and expect to be able to execute them in September next, except for Lilies and a few other sorts, which will not be ready for shipment till October. All commands will be filled in the order in which they are received.

There are large quantities of worthless or nearly worthless bulbs offered for sale by irresponsible parties, or dealers who have had but little experience in this branch of the Seed Trade. We would therefore caution all purchasers to be careful of whom they procure their stock, and examine closely all Bulbs they receive.

It sometimes occurs that our stock of some named varieties of Hyacinths and other Bulbs becomes exhausted before the close of the season, in which case we shall take the liberty of substituting others of same color and price, being equally as good, if not superior, to the ones ordered. Should any of our customers object to this course, they will please so state in their order.

In ordering Bulbs, be sure to give your name, Post Office, County and State, and write every letter so plainly that there can be no mistaking it. We sometimes receive letters with orders and money enclosed, and the writer neglecting to sign his name, or to give his address, we are unable to fill his order or return the money; and no doubt the party is very much annoyed at the result, as we certainly are. Also, in making out the order, give one line to each variety, and not run them all together through the letter, and you will greatly facilitate our dispatching orders.

GLASS CULTURE *All Single Hyacinths succeed well in glass, and those of the Double ones marked (*) are particularly recommended for glass culture and forcing. Those marked (**) are the earliest to bloom: those marked (l) are the latest to bloom; those marked (a) are large bulbs.*

CULTURE IN POTS.

TULIPS.

Next in importance to the Hyacinth, if not of equal consideration, comes the Tulip. It is difficult to conceive of anything more pleasing to the eye, than a bed of good Tulips. The great variety of colors produced, their intense brilliancy and beautiful shading, make them universal favorites. Another great consideration in their favor is the ease with which they can be cultivated, requiring only any good common soil to grow them to perfection; the price, too, as compared with other bulbs, places them within the reach of all, and there can be no reason why every family should not have a good bed of Tulips. There is no class of bulbs that makes so rich and gorgeous a display of blossom with so little attention and care in cultivation, and at so trifling a cost. The Tulip has been so much improved by the Dutch cultivators, that it now ranks high in the floral world, and people who have been accustomed to see a bed of them on the old homestead from their youth, have little idea of the magnificent varieties brought into notice by the amateurs.

The culture of Tulips is the same as given Hyacinths, except that the bulbs should be planted four inches apart, when a fine display is wanted; but many place them from six to eight inches apart. Most of the varieties are well adapted to pot culture, and if ten or twelve be grown in a single large pot, the effect will be beautiful.

SINGLE.

DOUBLE.

If the early kinds be planted in September, and forced, as directed for Hyacinths, they may be had in bloom in December.

EARLY SINGLE TULIPS—Most suitable variety for Out-Door Culture.

These commence flowering two weeks in advance of any other, and are admirably adapted to culture in pots, borders or beds. The Duc Van Thol, in all its colors, is perhaps more generally known than any other kind. Their early blooming, brilliant colors, and dwarf habit, render them very popular. They are extremely beautiful, and blend admirably; the scarlet is too brilliant for the eye; the rose has a satiny appearance, while the yellow and white are pure, so that a bed with scarlet in the center, yellow next, then rose, then variegated, would produce an exceedingly pretty effect.

SHOW TULIP.

LATE FLOWERING, or SHOW TULIPS.

This variety is grown by the florist and amateur for its beautiful bloom, and is seldom used to produce a mass of flowers, each individual blossom being a marvel of beauty in itself. It is from this variety that prize flowers are obtained, many of which command fabulous prices.

They are much taller than the preceding varieties (being 1½ to 2 feet), and were the subject of so much commercial speculation in the seventeenth century, when five hundred pounds sterling were paid for a single bulb. The mania has now died out, yet larger sums are still paid for new varieties of this bulb, than almost any other.

CROCUS.

CROCUS.

CROCUS.

ANEMONE—SINGLE AND DOUBLE.

Among the earliest to blossom in the Spring is this beautiful little flower, lifting its head almost before the snow has disappeared. Blooming at a time when the ground is destitute of foliage or flower, it is a welcome visitor. The Crocus succeeds when grown in pots, and tolerably well in glasses, for which purpose the best named varieties should be selected. They present the best appearance, however, when grown in masses, in a bed, for which large quantities should be used, say from one hundred to five hundred in a bed. The proper time for planting is the same as for the Hyacinth, and the bulbs should be set two or three inches apart, and two deep.

ANEMONE.

One of the most beautiful and showy of flowers, being exceedingly brilliant, and the stripes and belts distinct and charming. It is not quite so hardy as many other bulbs, but planted in October or November, six inches apart, and covered three inches deep and well protected by leaves and manure, success can confidently be expected.

BULBOCODIUM.

Very attractive is the pretty flower of the Bulbocodium, or Spring Colchicum. It is one of the earliest to flower of the Spring blooming bulbs, coming in bloom from ten to fifteen days earlier than the favorite Crocus. The flowers are of a rich dark purple color, some specimens having black-purple veins or markings. Plant the bulb two inches deep, in a light sandy soil early in October; it will produce finer bloom if undisturbed for several years.

COLCHICUM.

A species of Crocus producing its flowers late in the Autumn, after all other flowers have perished and the leaves fallen. The following Spring the plant throws up its foliage and ripens its seed. Six or eight flowers are produced from one bulb. Their culture is the same as given for Crocus, except they should be set out earlier. They are perfectly hardy, and will endure the coldest weather. The bulbs are large, and should remain a long time without being disturbed.

CROWN IMPERIAL.

A tall, stately plant, with beautiful flowers of various colors, and remarkable for the drops in the petals of the flowers, which shine with a peculiar lustre, and resemble a pearl. The flowers are fragrant, but the bulbs have a disagreeable odor which is sometimes transmitted through the bed. Plant six inches deep, and one foot apart, in good, rich soil in October or November. The bulbs need not be disturbed oftener than once in three or four years.

CYCLAMEN.

There is no more ornamental plant for green-house or parlor culture, than the Cyclamen. It grows readily, blossoms freely, and remains a long time in flower. The soil should be equal parts of turfy loam, leaf mold, and silver sand. Put in pots three times the diameter of the bulb, in October. Keep them in a cool, light place, watering lightly till growth begins; then water freely and give plenty of light and air. On the approach of cold weather, remove to a warmer situation—the parlor or green-house—but keep them near the light. The whole secret of growing Cyclamens to perfection is light, air, and a low temperature.

IRIS PLANT.

IRIS FLOWER.

DIELYTRA—(Bleeding Heart.)

Tuberous-rooted plants, blooming in the Spring; favorably known almost everywhere. They require only the ordinary culture of border plants. Roots planted in Autumn will flower freely. The roots should be divided every third year. The flowers are a delicate pink color, very graceful, produced continuously from May till July.

FUNKIA—(Day Lily.)

The well known Day Lily, so well known as to scarcely need any description. The roots should be set out in the Autumn to become well established, and they will bloom the following Spring. They need not be disturbed for many years, and will always be welcome for their grateful perfume lavishly dispensed.

IRIS—(Fleur de Lis.)

An elegant class of flowering bulbs, suitable for pots or borders, and all are hardy except Pavonia, which can only be flowered in the house, in pots. The bulbs should be planted in October, in light, rich soil, and protected by litter in Winter. Set the bulbs in clumps two inches apart each way, and three inches deep. Every third or fourth year they should be taken up and re-set. The flowers are very handsome, of various colors, fragrant, and freely produced.

The Lily has been with eminent propriety styled the "Queen of Flowers," and truly no flower conveys so adequate an idea of queenly beauty, majestic grandeur and faultless purity, as the Lily. Too much cannot be said in its praise, and we are glad to notice its increasing popularity from year to year. Nearly every variety will withstand the severity of our Winters, and many are among the most hardy of our garden flowers. Their culture is simple, and with a little care failure is impossible. Select a deep, rich soil, enrich it well with thoroughly decomposed manure, and set the bulbs from three to six inches deep, according to size. In the Autumn the bed should be protected by a liberal covering of leaves or litter, and care should be taken that they have proper drainage, no water being allowed to stand around the roots. The bulbs can be transplanted either in Spring or Autumn, but should be kept out of the ground the shortest possible time. Once firmly established, they should not be disturbed oftener than once in five years. Many of the varieties force well in the green-house, but are more suitable for parlor culture.

LILY OF THE VALLEY.

(CONVELLARIA MAJALIS.)

LILY OF THE VALLEY

Well known and universally admired Spring-flowering plants, equally well adapted to Winter-flowering, in the parlor. The flowers are bell-shaped, freely produced, and powerfully fragrant. For parlor culture, place five or six buds or pips in a crock, cover to the depth of one inch, set away in the dark for a week or two, and keep well watered. Then bring into the light, and set in a warm, moist place. In four or five weeks the flower will appear. By repeating this process at intervals, a constant succession of bloom may be maintained through the whole Winter. For out-door culture, you have only to set the buds or pips where they are to blossom, as soon as received, and no further attention is required. They are perfectly hardy, and are not injured by frost.

Strikingly beautiful flowers, well adapted to pot culture, in the house. They are not hardy, and great pains must be taken to insure success when planted out in beds. The beds should have good drainage, the soil light and warm, and well manured. Plant two inches deep, in November, and press the earth close around them. On the approach of cold weather, the beds should be thoroughly protected with leaves, litter or manure, which should be covered with boards. When warm weather appears, this covering is removed, and success is tolerably certain. They will repay all care bestowed upon them.

SMILAX.

Evergreen climbers of much beauty, usually cultivated as green-house or conservatory plants. The leaves are small, and quite ornamental; its twisting and clinging habit makes it quite a favorite in this country. It is very useful in the formation of wreaths and crosses, and for clothing statuettes, vases, &c. Grown both from seeds and bulbs. The little bulbs should be put in pots as soon as possible after they are received, and watered sparingly.

until signs of growth appear, when they should receive plenty of water. They grow rapidly, and a single bulb will make a vine forty feet long in a remarkably short time; strings must be supplied for them to run upon. Give them a warm place and plenty of air, but keep them from a direct draft. When the foliage turns yellow, cut off the vine and gradually withhold water, and put the bulb in a dry, cool place for six weeks, when it will be ready for another season's growth.

SNOWDROP.

The first to herald the approach of Spring, defying the cold, and lifting its tiny white blossom to view long before the snow has disappeared, and when no other sign of vegetable life appears. The flower is beautiful, and is more welcome by its being so early. They can be planted in beds, in the border, or in clumps in the open lawn, and will endure any amount of hard treatment; still no flower better repays care and attention. Plant the bulbs in September or October—the earlier the better—to enable them to become well established before freezing weather. Set about two or three inches deep, and one inch apart, in clumps or triple rows; if planted singly, they are not conspicuous. The bulbs should not be kept long out of the ground, and should not be disturbed oftener than once in two or three years.

PLANTS FOR WINTER BLOOMING IN THE HOUSE.

It is with real satisfaction that we present our customers with a largely increased list of Plants from which to select, embracing nearly all of the valuable newer varieties that have been tested and found worthy a place in our catalogue. Rooted plants, such as we send out, seldom fail to give perfect satisfaction; nor nearly the skill and patience are required with Plants that are necessary to produce bloom from the seed. The system of packing is now so perfect that plants can be sent about as safely in the coldest weather in winter, as in summer. It is now eight years since we added the Plant feature to that of our seed business, and we are glad to say that the instances have been very rare when the plants we sent out failed to give satisfaction.

The poor as well as the rich are fast learning that a few nice, healthy plants in their dwellings are a necessity as well as a luxury. They are regarded almost as members of the household, and many a delightful hour is spent in their companionship. How much real satisfaction is afforded in being able to offer your retiring guest in mid-winter a little bouquet of living flowers, grown in your own house, and perfected under your own supervision. Even the green leaves bring cheerfulness and sunshine. We cannot too strongly urge our friends to have some flowers and plants for winter blooming, at which season of the year even the most insignificant flower is more welcome than the most gorgeous display in summer, when all nature is blooming.

It is now well understood that we have unprecedented facilities for promptly and faithfully executing orders for plants, through our connection with one of the largest and most favorably known houses in central New York, with whom we have dealt for the past eight years, and who have gained an enviable reputation both for us and themselves, by growing and sending out only large, healthy, fine specimens of plants. Their system of packing and facilities for shipping are complete, and perfect satisfaction can be relied on. The order and money must be sent to us, but the plants will be sent to the party direct from the green-house in central New York.

PLANTS BY MAIL.—At the prices quoted, except where expressly stated otherwise, we send plants by MAIL, POSTAGE PREPAID BY US. The rate of postage on seeds, bulbs and plants, is sixteen cents per pound, so only small plants can be sent by mail. They will however be well rooted and healthy, and we will also wrap them carefully in oiled cloth, and use every other precaution to have them reach their destination safely and in good condition. In remote places, where the express charges would be exorbitant, we can only send plants by mail; and we cannot undertake to send to such remote places, under any circumstances, those plants like Bouvardias and Camellias, which are offered to be sent only by express.

PLANTS BY EXPRESS.—In all cases where it is apparent that the express charges will not be exorbitant, (from the long distance), it is much preferable to have your plants sent by express. The express charges will cost the purchaser a little more, but you will be sure of getting much larger, finer plants, and we shall add to all good sized orders a few extras, to compensate for the small difference in cost between mail and express. Parties living at a great distance, such as Texas, Louisiana or the Territories, would not be justified in ordering by express, as the charges would be more than the plants would be worth when received. We shall use our judgment and experience in shipping for the benefit and protection of our customers. When plants are sent by express the purchaser is in every case to pay the transportation charges.

BOXES AND PACKING.—We have no charges for boxes or packing, and the plants will be in fine condition when they leave us, and properly and carefully packed, but we cannot undertake to guarantee their condition when received. Our responsibility ceases with the delivery, in good order, to the express company or post office.

TERMS OF PLANTS.—The terms are strictly CASH WITH THE ORDER. The best method is to send draft on New York or Chicago to our order, or purchase a post office order payable to us. When neither of these is convenient, send the currency in registered letter.

ORDERS FOR PLANTS MUST AMOUNT TO FIFTY CENTS.—We cannot afford to give our attention to orders for plants amounting to less than fifty cents, unless in addition to the amount for plant or plants wanted, ten cents is sent. The office work on a small order is the same as on a large one, and it also requires nearly as much time to pack it, and takes almost as much postage, as an order double or triple the size. If your order for plants amounts to less than fifty cents, ten cents extra must be added.

COLLECTIONS OF PLANTS.

For the convenience of our customers, we have made the following selections of plants which we offer at reduced rates. We have bestowed great care on the selections, and none but good, healthy plants will be sent. The varieties sent will all be labeled, but exclusively our choice, though only good sorts, such as are described in our catalogue will be sent. We are only enabled to offer them at the following low prices, by retaining the privilege of selecting the varieties ourselves when we fill the order.

Farfugium, Grandes. A very showy foliage plant, with large, dark green leaves spotted with yellow. 50c.

Ferns. Too much cannot be said in favor of these graceful plants, and we are glad to see they are constantly growing in favor each year, till no collection of plants, however small, is now considered perfect without at least a few varieties of Ferns. In places too shady for other plants to thrive, they grow in great beauty. Coming as they do from every clime, we find them a very interesting study. They are alike good for baskets, vases, rock work, for ornamental plants for parlor or conservatory, and the pressed leaves of some of the varieties are marvels of graceful beauty. We make a specialty of them, and we doubt if many so large collections as ours can be found in this country.

Roses. Our stock of Roses this season is very fine, both for mailing and sending by express. Those offered as large plants have been bedded out, or grown in pots the past season, and wintered in cold frame; they can be planted out in the Spring with little or no risk. The rose requires high culture; it should be planted in good, well-drained soil; the ground can scarcely be made too rich. The pruning required will vary with the sorts planted, the rank-growing requiring less pruning than the weak ones. The points particularly to be observed are to prune before the buds start in spring, to cut out all unripe or old and feeble shoots, and to cut back the last season's growth to from one-half to two-thirds its length, according to the vigor of the sorts. Winter protection of tender sorts is accomplished by covering after a few severe frosts, with leaves, straw, evergreen boughs, or earth, or by removing the plants to a cool cellar. With a little care of this kind, the choicest tender roses may be safely wintered, and as they are the only really perpetual roses, they are abundantly worth the extra care. The insects most commonly injurious to the rose—as the Aphas, which appear in great numbers upon the young, growing shoots, and the Thrips, which prey upon the under side of the leaf, giving it a sickly, yellowish look, may easily be destroyed by syringing or dipping the plants in tobacco water. Purchasers will do better by allowing us some latitude in making selections, not only getting better plants, but greater distinction of variety.

Roses, hybrid perpetual, hardy. These bloom two or three times during the season. Bedding plants 20 cents each; $2.00 per doz; $10.00 per 100 by express. Large plants 35 to 50 cents each; $20.00 per 100 by express.

Repens. Leaves bright green, striped white.
Tropæolum, double scarlet. Fine for baskets or vases. 20 cents.
Valloita, purpurea. A beautiful, scarlet, summer-flowering bulb of the Amaryllis class. 25 to 50 cents.
Veronica. A beautiful class of plants, blooming during the fall months. Spikes of flowers from four to six inches long, produced in great abundance. 20c. each.
Imperialis. Amaranth-red, changing to carmine.
Triumph de Meaux. Deep lilac.
Andersonii. Variegated-foliage, marked white.
Vinca, elegantissima. Evergreen creeper, creamy-white marking. 25 cents.
Violet. Hardy, double, sweet-scented varieties.
Double white. 15 cents.
Maria Louise. Double blue. 15 cents.
Yucca, or Adam's Needle. For a cemetery, we doubt if a more appropriate plant can be found than the Yucca. The immense clusters of pure white blossoms render it very attractive. The leaves are narrow and long, and from their edges depend long threads. The flower stalk arises from the center of the plant to a height of three or four feet, and the bell-shaped, white blossoms are produced in abundance. The plant is perfectly hardy and can be set out where required, either in autumn or spring, and it will require no further care.
Filamentosa. 25 cents to $1.00.

Fruit Trees, Grape Vines, Small Fruits, &c.,

OF SUITABLE SIZE TO BE FORWARDED BY MAIL.

With the return of another year we have the pleasure of offering you many new and rare varieties of fruits, and although we cannot expect that every variety in the list will make a world-wide renown for itself, yet we have reason to hope that many of them will be so superior to the older sorts ripening at the same time, as to displace them from our catalogue. It is only through the introduction of new kinds that we can hope to arrive at perfection, which should be the aim of every cultivator of fruit. Of new Strawberries we offer the following: Bidwell, Crystal City, Cetawayo, Mt. Vernon, Golden Defiance, Sucker State, Springdale, Huddleston's Favorite, and Hervey Davis. In new Grapes that promise to be decided acquisitions, we offer: The Vergennes, which is claimed to keep well into winter, and, if properly handled, to dry down almost to a raisin. We also offer Bacchus, Highland, Monroe, Early Dawn, Rochester, and Jefferson, as well as Prentiss, Lady Washington and Duchess, the superb trio of last year's introduction. We have the pleasure of offering the Kiefer's Hybrid Pear, a variety produced by a cross with the Chinese Sand Pear. Among its remarkable properties it is said to be blight proof. Also the Champion Quince, which for quality and productiveness is said to entirely eclipse any and all its predecessors; and many other things of merit that we have not the space to mention here but place in the list under their respective headings. For want of space we regret that we cannot give descriptions of varieties. Two years ago, through the many inquiries of our customers, we were induced to add this department to our catalogue, and made arrangements with one of the largest and most reliable nurseries to fill all our orders for this class of goods, and the two years experience has fully demonstrated that no one in our broad land who is reached by Uncle Sam's mail bags need be deprived of the luxury of choice fruits, as the firm who fill our fruit orders guarantee their safe arrival in good condition.

By Express.—Please observe that when ordered sent by express double the amount of premiums are allowed. This is done to induce those who are not so distant but what they can afford to pay the express charges, to order plants shipped in this manner, as larger plants can usually be furnished and the additional premium will help pay the express charges; but orders for small amounts and those at a great distance will be cheaper if ordered by mail.

Order direct from us.—By so doing, you are sure of getting just what you order, every article true to name, and you also make a great saving, as no agent or dealer can afford to spend time and money canvassing without adequate remuneration.

Terms.—Our terms are strictly cash with the order. Do not ask us to send C. O. D., as the cost of collecting return charges is quite an unnecessary item of expense; and the prices being given, we can conceive of no necessity to warrant goods being so sent.

Orders for small fruits must amount to $1.00 and upwards; none are accepted for less amount, unless 10 cents extra is added to cover additional cost.

Fall Planting.—In many respects fall planting of fruit trees and small fruits is much more desirable than spring planting, as the plants are in the ground ready to grow as soon as the frost is out in the spring, and it is particularly recommendable in sections where late spring drouths prevail, as fall set plants become rooted and pretty well established before plants would likely be received from spring orders. If directions for fall planting and winter protection given with the headings are followed, but few losses need occur, and a splendid growth will be obtained the first season, much better than in the ordinary manner of spring planting. Where spring planting is resorted to, it is good policy to order the trees in the fall; on receipt the trees should be unpacked, separated and buried in any place where water does not stand, or they can be buried in the cellar; in either case see that earth comes in contact with all the roots. They can then be taken out and planted as early in the spring as the ground can be worked. Planted thus early, nearly as vigorous growth will be secured as by fall planting.

- " 55—40 Sharpless Strawberry plants, fruit immensely large, $1.00.

We have frequent letters of inquiry similar to the following: "In your set of 10 grape vines for $1.00, please let me know what sorts you send; also, in your set of 25 raspberry plants for $1.00, what varieties do you send?" In reply to all such inquiries permit us to say, that we are only enabled to offer so large a number for a dollar by retaining the privilege of selecting the varieties when we fill the order, and this excludes the possibility of naming in advance of filling the orders, what varieties will be used. But all sets will be filled with good sorts, such as are named in our catalogue. In sets where the varieties are named, those of course will always be sent.

PRICE LIST

Of Articles that can be sent to any part of the United States by mail.

APPLES—Standard.

One year grafts finely rooted cut back suitable for mailing. 15 cents each, 8 for $1.00, purchasers choice of the following:

Fall planted apple trees should have the earth well trodden around them and a mound of dirt a foot high placed about them, and if entirely covered all the better to prevent the winter's freezing and thawing from drawing them out: the earth should be leveled down before the buds swell in the spring or as soon as the frost is out of the ground. With this treatment trees will make a splendid growth the first season; much better than can be obtained in ordinary spring planting. The same treatment is applicable not only to apple, but also to pear, plum, peach, cherry, quinces, apricots, nectarines, nut-bearing trees, and all deciduous, forest and ornamental trees and shrubs.

Lawton, Kittatinny, Snyder, Early Wilson, Hoosac Thornless, Missouri Mammoth, Taylor's Prolific.

STRAWBERRIES.

For field culture plant 1 by 4 feet apart, 10,000 to the acre. For garden culture plant 1 by 2 feet apart. Any rich soil that will produce good corn or potatoes is suitable for the strawberry. Early in the winter cover the entire surface with litter of some kind to keep the plants from being injured by freezing. There is no danger of putting on too much between the rows, but the plants themselves must not be covered too deep; from 2 to 3 inches of coarse straw is probably the best covering. When growth commences remove the covering from directly over the plants and leave it between them for a mulch.

Monarch of the West.

STRAWBERRIES—New.

Price 10 cents each. $1.00 per dozen.

Bidwell, Crystal City, Cetawayo, Mt. Vernon, Golden Defiance, Sucker State, Springdale, Huddleston's Favorite, Hervey Davis.

STRAWBERRIES—General Collection.

ONION. The practice of sowing Onions in the Autumn is becoming somewhat prevalent, and in the Middle and Southern States has proved quite successful, but in the extreme Northern States we cannot recommend its adoption. In the South, it is practicable to sow the seed late, from which a good bottom set is obtained for use in the Spring. With market gardeners, it is an object to obtain good sized early Onions in advance of those produced from seed, and the bottom sets so obtained are what is wanted.

TURNIP. In our Northern climate, Ruta Bagas, or Swedes, are sown from about the 20th of June till the 15th of July, requiring a longer season to mature than Turnips which are sown from the middle of July to the last of August. In the Southern States, they can be sown much later, as they remain green all Winter, and will endure considerable frost. Two pounds of seed broadcast, or one pound in drills, is about the quantity to sow per acre. Drill sowing is much to be preferred—

HARDY FLOWER SEEDS FOR AUTUMN PLANTING.

There are quite a large number of hardy Annual as well as Perennial Flower Seeds that should be planted in the Autumn. The Perennials should be planted early enough to make good, strong plants which will be able to withstand the severity of the northern winter, while the Annuals will do better if planted late enough to have the seed remain in the ground through the winter, coming up early in the spring. The figures opposite the variety denote the price per packet of seeds:

SEEDS DESIGNED FOR GREEN-HOUSE.

The following list of Flower Seeds will do well in Green-House, and can be planted any season of the year that will best suit the florist. If planted in the autumn, a large proportion will furnish bloom in the winter, when cut flowers are in such demand. Some of the varieties would do well as tender annuals in the open ground in the spring:
